Two men were checked as slackers by he Washington county local board Friday afternoon when 40 examinations were conducted but later the correction was made for it was found that the two men had been sitting in the hallway all of the time, but apparently were too bashful to appear for medical examination. They were sitting outside the marshal's room in the federal building and saw the rest of the men going into another room for examinations. When t was almost time to leave by train for Waterbury, one of the men got courage mough to approach a member of the local board, asking when the examinations were to commence. He was advised they were nearly over, but that the physician A. M. Flanders has gone to Marshfield had not left, and a checking up showed these were the two men missing originally and that they had been in the building all the time. They had seen the other registrants going into the examining room but had paid no attention to it and came near being listed as slackers.

THE U. S. JACKIE'S LIFE. Two Days at Sea and Two Days in Port Is the Order.

On Board U. S. Destroyer, American Port in France, Nov. 8 (Correspondence of the Associated Press). Two days at sea, two days in port; this is the sailor' life, week in and week out, day and night, in the convoy service of American destroyers which has achieved such margreat deal for the cause, but there are velous results-an army of 2,000,000 men till many good men who have not been landed in Europe with the loss of a few hundreds.

The destroyer fleet was just back from the latest cruise as we went aboard to-day. They had brought in six big trans-ports, including three former German Ilnstered; class 3, A-B-C, no matter when ers. Already the soldiers were marching to camp, and on board the destroyers things were being made shipshape for the brief stay in port and then for the next adventure out beyond the capes, for with submarines off the port there is ceaseless vigilance, with always the chance of something happening, and everyone on the tip-toe of expectation. The reports brought back of the last cruise were of the best. It had been comparatively quiet and the transports had FOR RENT A 5-room tenement with gar-den and apple trees; rent for winter, $9.00; aubmarine.
